El Pacto de Dios con David

"Cuando te llegue el momento de descansar con tus padres, yo elegiré a uno de tus hijos y afirmaré su reinado. Será él quien me edifique un templo, y afirmaré su trono para siempre. Yo seré un padre para él, y él me será un hijo... jamás le negaré mi misericordia... Tus descendientes vivirán seguros, y afirmaré tu trono, el cual permanecerá para siempre" (2 Sam 7:12-16)

INTRODUCTION

The stories of David and Solomon are prominent in the Hebrew annals. David with his successful warrior campaigns and Solomon in a time of peace and prosperity. David loving God with all his might and Solomon seeking and obtaining great wisdom. Two outstanding kings.

20 Después dijo David a toda la congregación: "Benedicid ahora a Jehová, vuestro Dios". Entonces toda la congregación bendijo a Jehová, Dios de sus padres, e inclinándose adoraron delante de Jehová y del rey.

DEVELOPMENT

1) DAVID. (1 S. 16-1 - 1 K. 2:11)

David's life occupies much of the historical books.

From a young age, he reflected a character of kindness and at the same time a force-hardened momentum in combat (1 S. 17:34-37). The field, the sheep, and the beasts prepared him to come to the throne and deal with the sheep of Israel. Psalm 23 it is an example of how he regarded God in his life; Jehovah, the shepherd; David, the sheep.

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta; en verdes pastos me hace descansar. Junto a tranquilas aguas me conduce; me infunde nuevas fuerzas. Me guía por sendas de justicia por amor a su nombre.

- Salmo 23:1-3

1) DAVID. (1 S. 16-1 - 1 R.

He arrived at the palace as a private musician to King Saul (1S.16:14,21). After a while, David returned to his former field service, but very soon he would have the opportunity to return to the palace, this time as the king's squire (16:21), and later as war-time captain (18:5)

1 Samuel 16:14

King James Version

But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him.

Paul Hoff, makes the observation that "in those days David learned to love Saul with a love that never went out, even in the years of persecution by him"

MI VIDA ES LUZ

1) DAVID. (1 S. 16-1 – 1 Kings 2:11)

David also earned the affection of the people (1 S. 18:7-9). Which filled the king with envy, who persecuted him for the rest of his life (1S. 18-27).

David was king of the tribe of Judah in Hebron, seven and a half years, then over all of Israel for 33 years, in total forty years (2S. 5:4,5)

David's accomplishments include the following. "He captured the fortress of Jerusalem and made it his religious and political capital (2S. 5:6-10). He managed to bring the Covenant Arch to the city of "Zion" and made worship a central part of national life.

He also won decisive victories over long-time enemies, the Philistines. He organized the government of Israel; extended its territories to the Euphrates River to the northwest, and to the Nulo River to the southeast."

1) DAVID. (1 S. 16-1 - 1 K 2:11)

No busques la manera
de agradar a otros.
Busca la manera
de agradar a Dios.

Lávame de toda mi maldad
y límpiame de mi pecado (...)
Contra ti he pecado, solo contra ti,
y he hecho lo que es malo ante tus ojos.

Salmo 51.2, 4

The Bible presents the men of history as they were; with their strengths and weaknesses.

David committed sin by taking the wife of Urias and planning his death in battle. This was unpleasant in God's eyes.

Psalms 51 records his prayer of repentance, God forgave him, but he paid the consequences (2S.12). Before he died, he placed his son on the throne.

2) SOLOMON. 1 King. 1-11.

Solomon was young when he began to reign. His story encompasses the first eleven chapters of the first book of Kings. His beginning in the reign was pleasing in the eyes of God, He granted him a docile, wise and understood heart to rule the people (1K 3:12-15).

Solomon's reign was characterized as a period of peace and prosperity. David had kept his enemies at bay and had rigged the pathway to the new king. His fame became international (1R. 4:2).

He had many riches, Earl P. Mc Quay comments, "His main achievement was the construction of the temple, which had been planned by David. It was built during the first decade of his kingdom. The temple represented a peak in Israel's religious history.

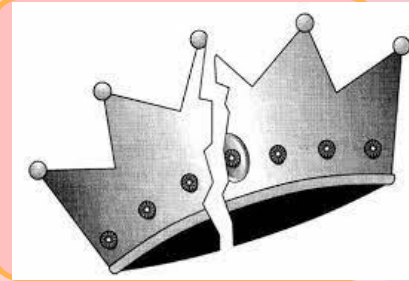

2) SOLOMON. 1 King. 1-11.

Built on Mount Moriah (where many years earlier Abraham had gone to sacrifice Isaac, Gen 22:2), Solomon's temple was never matched in beauty."

Solomon neglected his spiritual life, initially, by taking foreign women as wives. They diverted his heart to other gods, and to build altars to them. This fact greatly annoyed God (1K. 11:1-13)

God shared with him that his kingdom would be divided for this reason, but it would not be in his day, but in the reign of his son. When Solomon died, Rehoboam his son succeeded him on the throne.
